SIR ROBERT MILTON WORCESTER

for his many decades of work championing the global relevance and value of Magna Carta and the principles it expounds: liberty, freedom, equality, human rights and the rule of law, and especially for his chairmanship of the 800th Anniversary Committee which in 2015 saw hundreds of events across the globe expounding the principles of Magna Carta to humanity and reminding the world again of the need to continue advancing human liberty, human rights, freedom and equality under law." 🦱

KNIGHT OF MAGNA CARTA

The man who is probably best known vices rendered to political, social and sional journals, newspapers and to marketers for inventing the opinion economic research and for contribu- magazines. He is co-editor of the polling industry, Sir Robert Worces- tion to government policy and proter is the Founder of MORI (Market grammes". & Opinion Research International), London. He is Deputy Chairman of of the University of Kent. He is Visit- of Public Opinion Research and his the Magna Carta Trust; Chairman of ing Professor of Government at Lon-most recent book with Roger Mortithe Magna Carta 2015 800th Anni- don School of Economics (LSE) and more, Paul Baines, and Mark Gill versary Commemoration Committee an Emeritus Governor of the LSE and is 'Explaining Cameron's Coalition and Vice President and former Chair- is a Visiting Professor at the Instiman of the Pilgrims Society. He is a tute of Contemporary British History Past-President of the World Asso- at King's College London. He is also for the Financial Times and various ciation for Public Opinion Research Honorary Professor at Kent and at other newspapers and magazines (WAPOR). In 2005 he was appointed Warwick. He holds a number of hon- and frequently appears on British, by Her Majesty the Queen a Knight orary degrees and fellowships. Commander of the Most Excellent Worcester is author, co-author, edi-Order of the British Empire (KBE) in tor or co-editor of more than a dozen recognition of the "outstanding ser- books and many articles in profes-

Consumer Market Research Handbook (McGraw Hill), a founding co-Sir Robert is Emeritus Chancellor editor of The International Journal

> He has been a prolific contributor American and Canadian television and radio.

Over 80, Sir Robert is as spry and engaged as ever, and the former pollster to Harold Wilson, Neil Kinnock and countless politicians, has a new challenge, which transcends mere party politics. His most recent task was to chair the committee that coordinated the myriad events around the 800th anniversary of King John's grand bargain with his barons, Magna Carta, sealed at Runnymede on June 15, 1215.

Professor Sir Worcester has for many decades championed the global relevance and value of Magna Carta and the principles it expounds: liberty, freedom, equality, human rights and the rule of law. His chairmanship of the 800th Anniversary Committee which in 2015 saw thousands of events across the globe expounding the principles of Magna Carta to humanity and reminding the world again of the need to continue advancing human liberty, freedom, equality under law and human rights.

POWER BRANDS GLOBAL: LIFE POWER BRANDS GLOBAL: LIFE